Mamallapuram was created by the Pallava Dynasty. It has many rock sculptures and is declared by UNESCO as a World Heritage site.

Mamallapuram

Uthiramerur, an ancient Chola village, is located in Kancheepuram district. The temple inscriptions of Uthiramerur are notable for their historical descriptions of rural self-governance.

North Arcot

The modern districts of Vellore and Tiruvannamalai constituted the North Arcot district.

Vainu Bappu Observatory

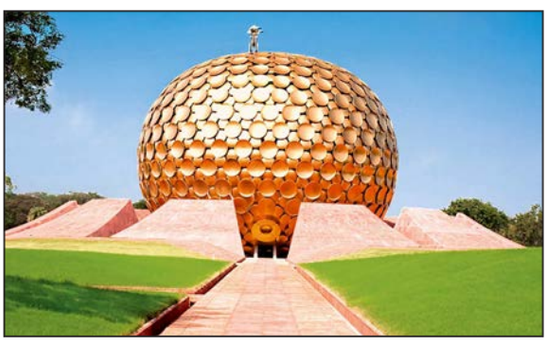

Vellore Fort is an ancient fort built in 1566 by Chinna Bommi Nayak and Thimma Reddy Nayak.

The Vainu Bappu Observatory is an astronomical observatory. It is located at Kavalur. This is the biggest observatory in Asia.

South Arcot

W9T8B6

The modern districts of Villupuram and Cuddalore constituted the South Arcot district.

Auroville

Auroville is an experimental township in Villupuram district near Puducherry. It is a place where people from all over the world come and live together to build a culture of unity.

Gingee Fort

Gingee Fort also called as Senji Fort is one of the beautiful forts in Tamil Nadu. This fortress is built across three hillocks in Villupuram district. The British called this fort as "Troy of the East".

4th_Term_3_Social_Science_Madras Presidency_Unit_2.indd 116 11/12/2019 1:32:23 PM